The many ways residents of our memory support program choose to live each day guide how we help each one enjoy life at Elder Homestead. From delicious culinary selections to stimulating activities, our memory support conveniences and amenities enhance your loved one's daily activities and personalized care.

In the right environment, people with memory loss are able to move throughout their days enjoying the freedom to be active and social, while experiencing structured care and supervision. Our compassionate staff provides memory support care services that encourage each individual's long-term needs — not just for their health, but their wellness and happiness as well. Volunteers of America National Services memory caregivers are expertly trained to support not only the senior in need, but their family as well.
